Mentor-Mentee Meeting Report-1

(Session: 2019-20)

Mentor:- Ms. Sarika	Date:-22/02/2020	Program:- Bachelor of Hotel Management
Year/ Semester:- 2nd / 4th		Venue: Class Room( E-205)
Total Strength of Class:- 15	Present:- 10	Absent:- 05
Outline topics covered at this meeting:	Issue raised in this meeting by the Mentees	Issues resolved by the Mentor
Students are instructed to register on ERP.	Some mentees, namely Harsh Kamboj and Golu Kumar have raised concerns regarding their financial constraints as a restraint to registering in the ERP. They also asked information regarding the availability, eligibility criteria, and application processes for scholarships offered by the University.	Mentees were advised to register on ERP and mentor discussed their financial issue with the Department Coordinator. The department coordinator escalated this matter to the University Registrar, who, after due consideration, granted a one-month extension for fee submission.
Instructed for Upcoming Industrial Training.	The mentees wanted to know all about the upcoming Industrial Training program. They need this information to get ready for their interviews and be well-prepared	Mentor gave details about industrial training such as- After the end of the semester, DEEPRO will provide students with a training letter. Subsequently, students will require presenting this letter to the respective company as part of their process to commence their industrial training.
Hostel related issue (cleaning, pure drinking water)	Hostel residents have voiced concerns regarding two critical issues. Firstly, there were sanitation and hygiene issues in the hostel toilets that need immediate attention and resolution. Secondly, the availability of clean and safe drinking water.	Mentor discussed this issue with the Warden of the hostel. To address these concerns, the hostel management (warden) had initiated immediate measures to improve sanitation and hygiene in the hostel toilets. A thorough cleaning schedule and routine inspections have been
