FOSTERING LEADERSHIP AS A SOFT SKILL THROUGH A PLAY ON MARTYR BHAGAT SINGH'S STORY

Name of Event: FOSTERING LEADERSHIP AS A SOFT SKILL THROUGH A PLAY ON MARTYR BHAGAT SINGH'S STORY

Date of Event: 23rd March 2021

Hosted By: Department of Humanities and Social Sciences

Number of Participants: 20 Students

On March 23, 2021, Quantum University organized a solemn event to commemorate the martyrdom of Bhagat Singh, a significant figure in India's struggle for independence. The event was meticulously organized and executed by the dedicated and enthusiastic student body of Quantum University in which moreover 20 students participated, intending to pay a heartfelt tribute to the indomitable spirit of Bhagat Singh and also to foster soft skills like leadership, teamwork, confidence, and planning.

Major Outcomes of the Event

The event to commemorate Bhagat Singh's martyrdom yielded several significant outcomes:

1. Inspiration: Attendees, primarily students, were deeply inspired by Bhagat Singh's life and his unwavering commitment to justice and freedom. They left the event with a renewed sense of patriotism and determination to contribute positively to society.
2. Historical Awareness: The event succeeded in educating attendees about Bhagat Singh's historical significance, ensuring that his legacy is not forgotten. Participants gained a deeper understanding of the sacrifices made by the freedom fighters of India.
3. Development of Leadership as a Soft Skill: One of the standout aspects of the event was the development of leadership skills among the students involved. Organizing and executing a solemn event of this magnitude required effective leadership. Here's how leadership as a soft skill was developed:
4. Planning and Organization: Students took on leadership roles in planning and coordinating various aspects of the event, from logistics to content preparation. This experience honed their skills in project management and organization.
5. Effective Communication: Leaders had to communicate the event's objectives, roles, and expectations clearly to the team. They also practiced effective public speaking during speeches and poetry recitations.
6. Teamwork: Leadership in this context involves working collaboratively with a diverse team of students. Leaders had to delegate responsibilities, motivate team members, and ensure that everyone contributed effectively.

7. Adaptability: Leaders had to adapt to unforeseen challenges and changes in the event's schedule or requirements, developing flexibility and problem-solving abilities.
